

Department of Health and Human Services
Strategic Document Management System

The Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) Strategic Document Management System (SDMS) is the storage and management system for the Agency's strategic documents including policies, protocols & guidelines.

Strategic Document Management System – hyperlink

Instructions for Policy Searching – hyperlink

Tips & tricks for using SDMS for Document search

- Double click to Open the icon - often the icon is on the desk top of clinical computers in wards & departments.
- Use the search engine box on the right hand side of the initial page opened –type in key words & then select the THS – Southern Region documents

The above is faster & less steps to go direct to the subject rather than searching & filtering thru each state organisation, region & sub group